Address: 183-85 King and Clifford Streets, Charleston,
Charleston County, South Carolina

Present Occupants: The Art Store
Harley's Office Machine Company

Statement of Significance: A pair of adjoining, late nineteenth century commercial fronts of similar design, with interesting architectural character, employing sheet metal; they are in fair condition. They contain a total frontage of about 38', facing east. They are two and three stories, respectively. First floors are modernized; upper stories show sheet metal facing, employing engaged columns. At the top are heavy projecting cornices.
